Bonnie View Farm in King City on Saturday June 22, 2019

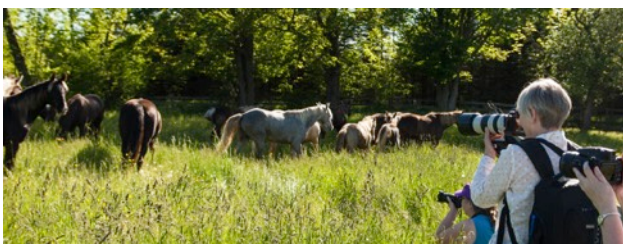

Learn basic equine photography or improve the skills you already have. This photo workshop is open to all levels of photographers who want to learn more about photography and how to take great photos of horses. Learn and practice shooting portraits, conformation, with models and action.

The morning will be in class learning about your camera, basic photographic skills and techniques, what makes a good photo, and secrets to capturing horses in the right light, proper angles and the perfect moment.

Lunch will be served and afterwards we will get down and dirty with the horses shooting portraits, conformation, with models and in the late afternoon running the horses in a field to practice shooting action. Get up close and personal with these gorgeous Rocky Mountain horses and above all have fun!!
